THE AUDITORIUM.
Charley Chaplin is amusing picture fans at the Auditorium today with a two reel comedy, "The Woman," his latest Essanay release. "On Dangerous Paths," a four part Edison drama, with Viola Dana, Robert Connors, Helen Strickland, William West and Margaret Prussing, is also being shown. Tomorrow the Kalem cabaret show, "Midnight at Maxims," which made a big hit when presented here a couple weeks ago, will be the feature. This proved to be one of the most attractive pictures ever shown in the Auditorium and it was impossible to accommodate all those who wished to see it. It is presented with a strong cast of well known players and during the action of the story a number of headline vaudeville acts are introduced. What little plot there is to the story revolves around "Tottie," a cabaret dancer, who fascinates three young fellows. They go to see her dance and then try to see her as she leaves, but she walks out on the arm of a man whom she introduces as her husband, thus crushing the hopes of the romantic young men. The last episode of the serial picture, "The Goddess," featuring Anita Stewart and Earl Williams, will be shown tomorrow as well as the Selig weekly of current events. Friday's feature will be Rose Coghlan and Ethel Clayton in "The Sporting Duchess."

AT THE LASALLE.
The feature picture at the LaSalle today is a drama of Paris life entitled "Dr. Rameau," featuring Fredrick Perry in the title role. It is a William Fox production which speaks well for its quality and Mr. Perry is an actor of merit. The story deals with a physician who, though skilled and successful, is a non-believer in the divine power, and who experiences a great personal loss before he is brought to the confession of his own weakness. An excellent supporting cast and many interesting scenes make this six reel production a feature.

Thursday's bill brings another American dramatic star, Emmet Corrigan, in the story of a magnificent sacrifice, "Greater Love Hath No Man." The plot of the piece has to do with a life convict who escapes from prison and who makes a sacrifice of his liberty for the woman he loves. On the same program is a Japanese acrobatic vaudeville act, continuing the series of this nature that has proved very popular.

AT THE INDIANA.
Prominently featured on the program at the Indiana today is Ring W. Lardner's first film comedy, "You Know Me, Al," or "The Letters of Bugs to Gus." This baseball comedy is the first of a series to be shown at the Indiana, originated by Mr. Lardner and following his unique style of humor in the magazine and daily press his writings have been received with much favor and he enters the motion picture field confident that his comedy offerings will prove amusing. On the same program will be seen "The Wives of Men," a Biograph dramatic feature concerning the troubles between an engineer and a contractor engaged in construction work. One of the men is insanely jealous of his wife, misconstrues the other's actions and dramatic events follow. "The Strength of Love," the sixth of "The Road of Strife" series, and "Hunting a Husband," a comedy, will also be shown. "Men and Women," a Klaw and Erlanger production, based on one of their former dramatic successes, will be featured at the Indiana Thursday. Of equal importance is the engagement of Ruth Stonehouse and Richard Travers in a popular two-

To Put On Flesh And Increase Weight

GOOD ADVICE FOR THIN PEOPLE.

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to gain a few pounds and stay that way," declare many thin men and women. Such a result is usually not impossible despite past failures. Most thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood much of the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat the flesh making food elements must be so prepared in the digestive processes that the blood will accept and distribute them throughout the body. There is a preparation called Sargol, which works on this basis and which is sold by nearly every druggist on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back. Hundreds have testified to weight increase from its use.

Sargol does not of itself make fat but is simply a combination of ingredients of acknowledged merit that, taken with meals seems to better enable the digestive organs to separate the fattening elements of the food and to prepare them in a form which the blood can readily absorb. Sargol comes in tablet form, is pleasant and easy to take and its action is perfectly natural and harmless. Sargol is sold by Wetick's Original Cut Rate Medicine Store and druggists everywhere who are authorized to refund the full purchase price if weight increase is not obtained.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while it has produced excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders care should be taken by those using it who do not want to increase weight.

Lime and Tuberculosis

Dr. Roberts Bartholow, former professor in Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, says in his "Materia Medica" (1893), on pages 215 and 216: "Clinical experience has shown that it (referring to a calcium salt) possesses the ill-defined property known as alterative, removes certain toxic or morbid materials and secures their secretion by the organs of elimination. . . . The testimony which has lately been published in respect to its curative powers in consumption is certainly very striking."

He does not refer to testimony regarding Eckman's Alternative, since the medical profession never publicly recommends proprietary remedies. However, many cases of consumption seem to have yielded to this remedy.

This success may be due largely to the fact that in Eckman's Alternative a calcium (lime) salt is so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated by an average person. It contains neither poisons, narcotics, nor habit-forming drugs, so is safe. At your druggist's or direct.

Stewart was giving his performance in connection with a carnival. When within 10 feet of his landing place he lost his hold on his trapeze and fell to the pavement.
